

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3219 - HB 3427

February 12, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL:

- Requires candidates to file an early supplemental campaign financial disclosure report, who currently are not required to do so.
- Requires anyone filing an appointment of political treasurer statement before December 31 of the year preceding the election, to file the early supplemental report, which runs through December 31. Currently, if a candidate files their appointment of political treasurer statement less than a year before the election, the first report due is the pre-primary report.
- Any candidate filing an appointment of political treasurer statement after December 31 shall file a report within ten days following the qualifying deadline.

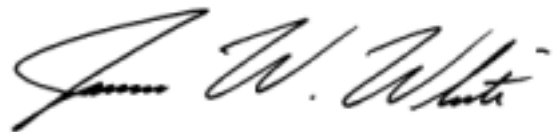

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumes any cost to the Registry of Election Finance to send filing notices to additional candidates will be not significant and can be handled within existing budgeted resources.
